

ABOUT

Timothy P. Williams

Senior Director of Formation and Leadership Development for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in the United States.

He is a former senior executive in the software industry, where he also was a frequent writer and speaker on technology issues. Prior to that, He served as an Armor Officer in the United States Army

Before joining the National Council staff in 2020, Tim served as an elected Conference, District Council, and Diocesan Council officer, led formation and training for the Society in North Texas, and was a member of the National Formation Committee. In addition to his work with the Society, Tim served for three years as Chairman of the Board of Directors for a national veterans organization, and as an appointed member of the Charter School Review Committee for the Texas State Board of Education. Tim has presented on Vincentian Spirituality, Formation, and Heritage at numerous Diocesan, Regional, and National Assemblies, and his writing has been published in the Vincentian Heritage Journal. He has a bachelor's degree in history from Marquette University, a Master's Degree in Vincentian Studies from the College of Theology at the University of Deusto in Bilbao, Spain, and certificates in Catholic Theology and in Sacred Scripture from the Augustine institute. Most importantly, he and his wife, as long-time members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, have made many hundreds of home visits, serving Christ in the person of the poor.