

KELLI NELSON

Kelli Nelson currently serves as Executive Director of From Mission to Mission. Inspired by her work with the Vincentians during her undergraduate and postgraduate studies, and two years of living and learning in Peru, Kelli has worked as a bridge builder and advocate in many arenas. From working in social services to consulting for social businesses, and at From Mission to Mission today, she strives to assist individuals and groups to lean fully into their missions. Kelli is personally passionate about worker and environmental justice, gets excited about sustainable swaps, will drink all of your coffee, and loves some quality family time!
