Rev. Augustine Adetola
Catholic Priest

Rev. Augustine Adetola is a Catholic Priest ordained for the Catholic Diocese of Ijebu-Ode, Nigeria on December 18, 2015. He is a passionate administrator and a pastorally inclined priest. In his 9 years as a priest, he has worked in parishes both in his local diocese in Nigeria and in the United States of America; he also worked as the Secretary to the Bishop of Ijebu-Ode Diocese (2019-2021) and as the acting Chancellor of the Diocese from 2020-2021.

He is currently working in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston as the Pastor of Saint Peter Claver Parish, Houston, Texas and the Mission Director of the Mission Promotions Office of the Catholic Diocese of Ijebu-Ode in the USA, Canada and Europe. The Diocese is incorporated as a non-for-profit organization here in the USA and included in the Official Catholic Directory as Friends of Ijebu-Ode Diocese INC. Fr. Augustine is passionately involved in the work of mission having worked in the mission areas of his local Diocese for many years both as a seminarian and as a priest. He has vast experience of what it means to be a missionary priest in a mission land. During the summer months, he goes around various dioceses in the USA and Canada, talking about mission in his home diocese. Fr. Augustine is a lover of Basketball and Soccer; he also loves to read and to write about the Catholic Doctrines. He currently holds a Bachelor Degree in Philosophy from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria; a Bachelor degree and Masters degree in Theology from Pontifical University Rome, Italy and a Masters degree in catechesis (in-view) from the Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio.
